Foreword

We, the staff of 1969-1970, present to you the third edition of our yearbook with the events that have taken place.

You have been caught in the act of working and playing, and now you can enjoy these precious memories.

May these moments of high school life be forever treasured in these pages for enjoyment throughout all eternity.

The Staff

Class Song

Dear Pinkston High, we all must leave you soon, though you'll always be in our heart.
We know that you will help the others along, for you have helped us from the very start.
Dear Pinkston High, you'll always be our home, no matter what we say or do.
Dear Pinkston High, keep your standards high. Our Pinkston High, how we love you.
For the time is now to fulfill each vow, for we may never pass this way again.

Dedication

The Senior Class of 1969-1970 takes pride in dedicating this yearbook to a person who is loved and admired by all.

We regard this person as one who has worked endlessly and untiringly to carry out his works and the works of others. He is an example of one who "walks with dignity." We have long considered him a master of competence and a paragon of patience in the demanding task of teaching music and being the Senior Coordinator, and, most of all, we have admired him as a person.

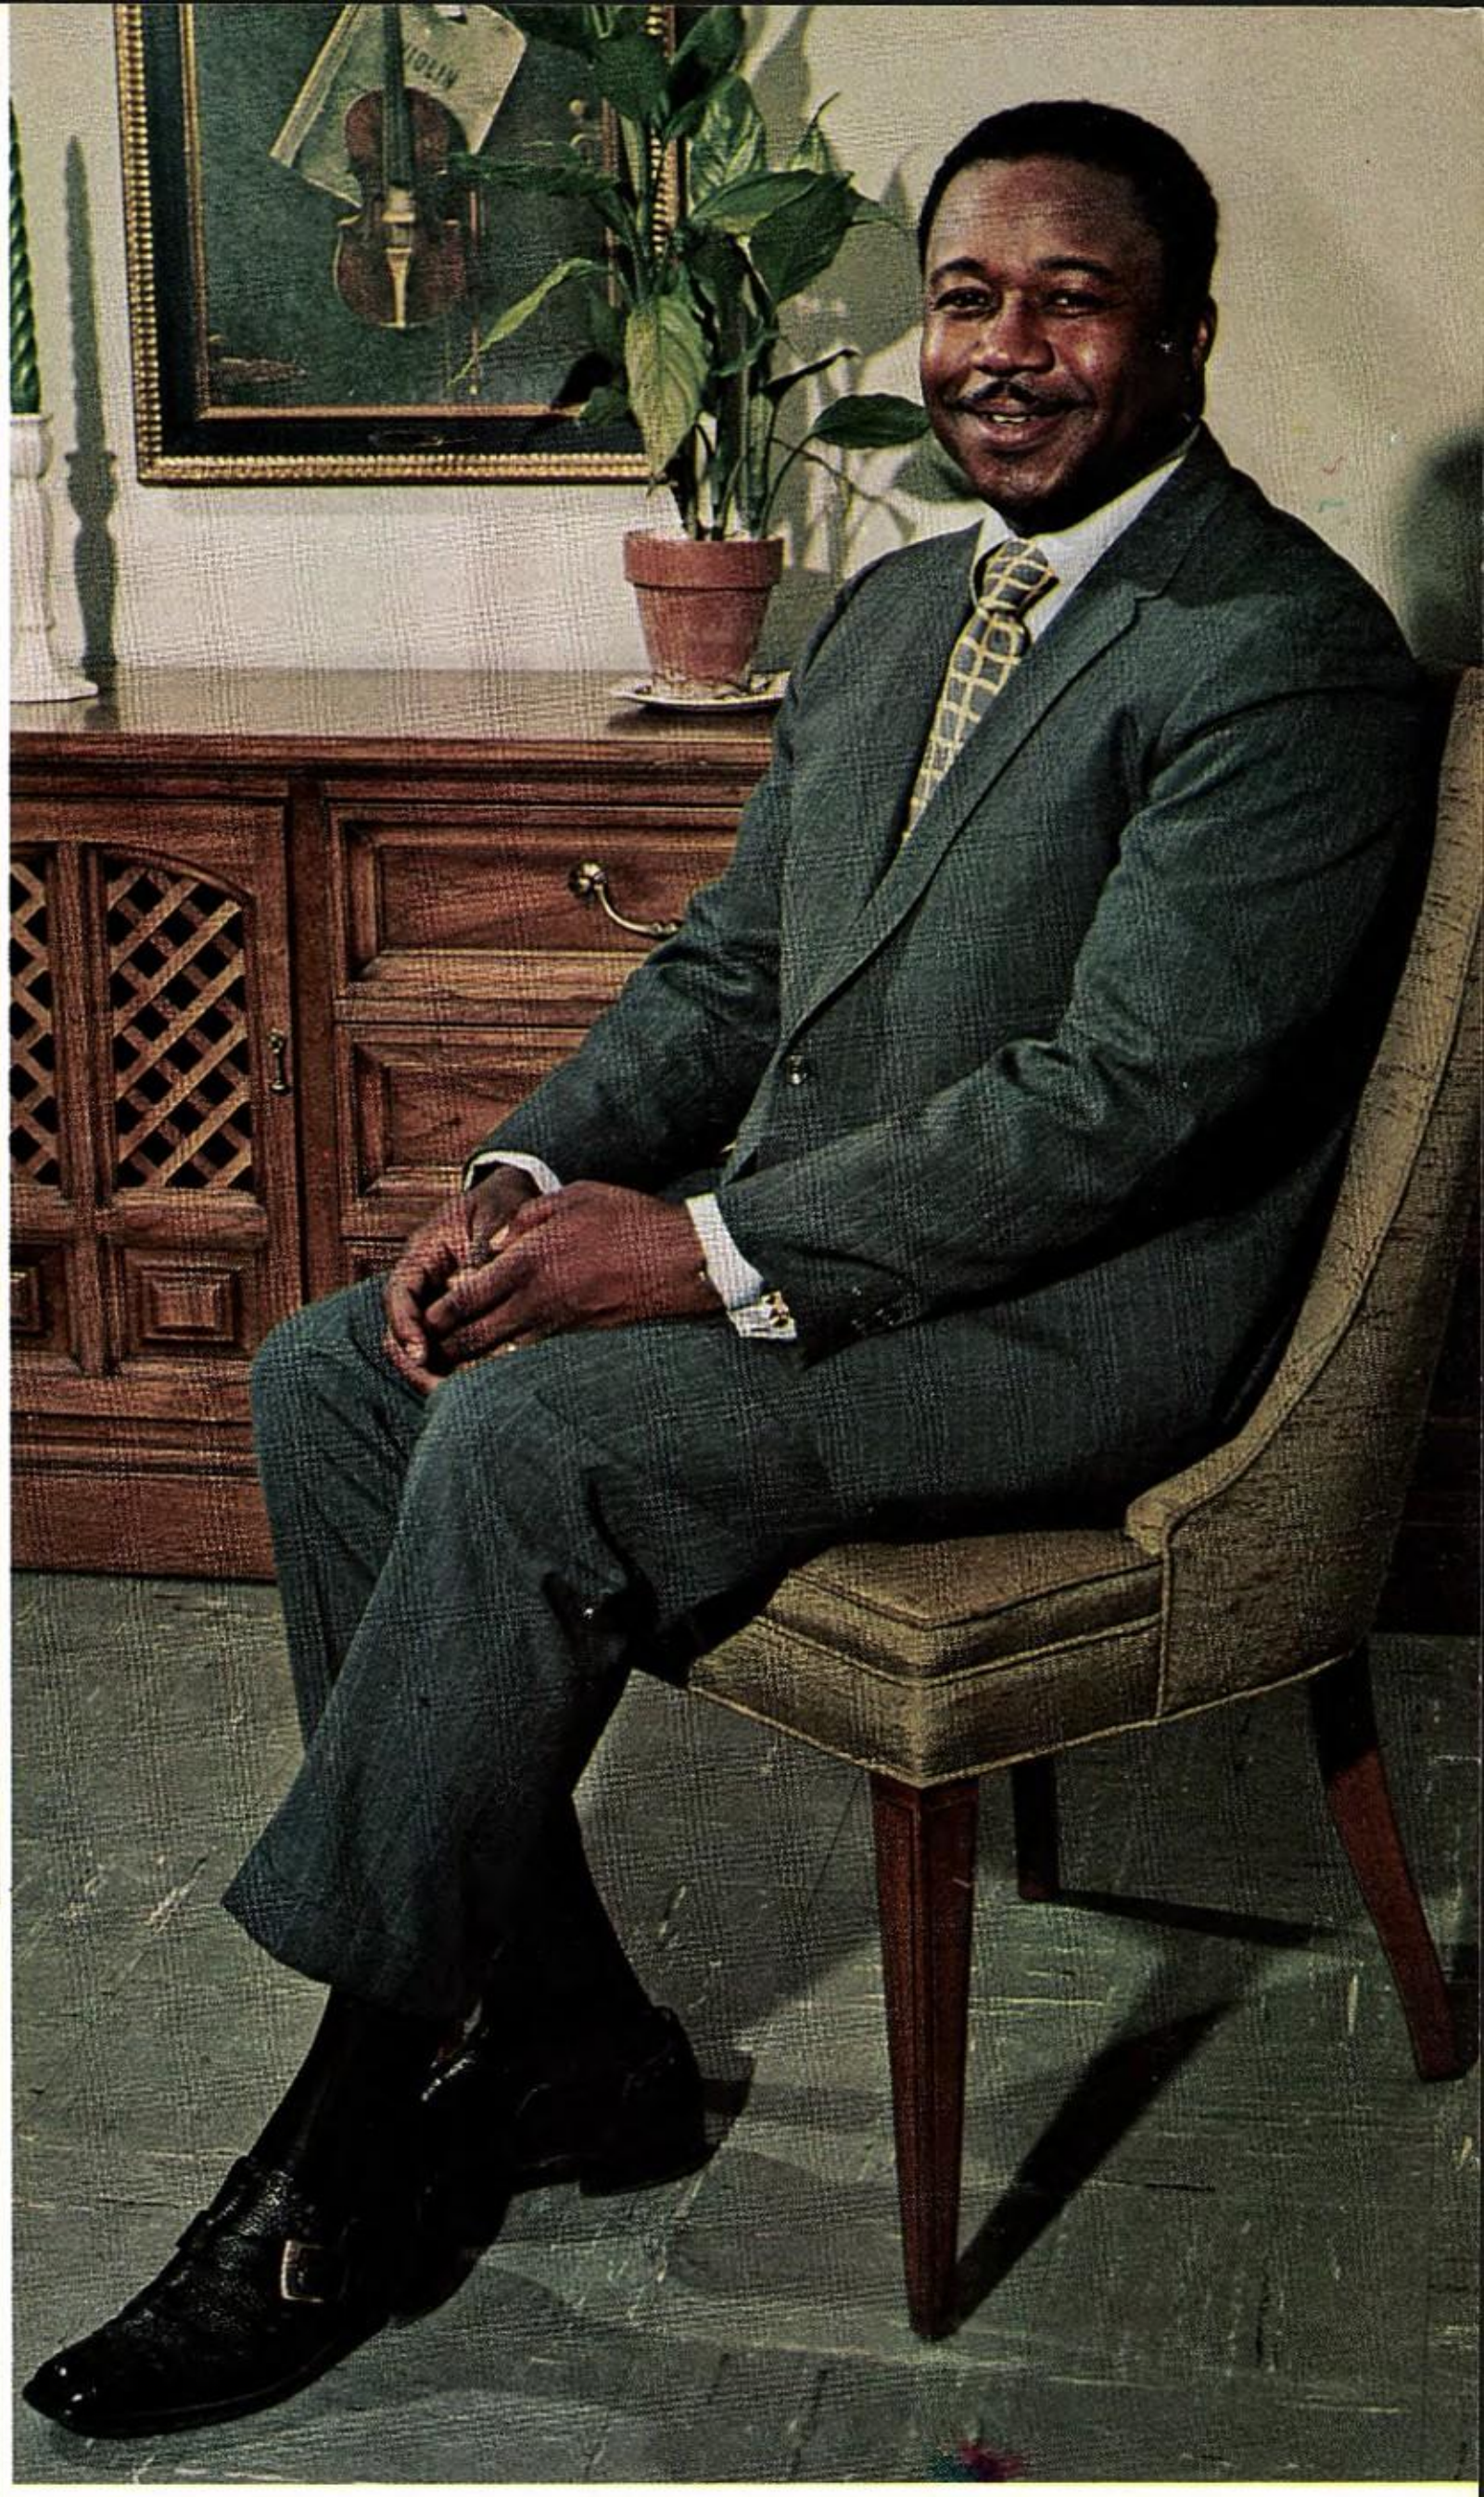
Mr. Roy Edward Hicks was born January 14, 1931. He attended Carver Elementary School at McGregor, Texas and completed his junior and senior high school years at B. K. Bruce High School, Gilmer, Texas, where he graduated as class valedictorian at the age of 14. He attends St. James AME Temple.

Mr. Hicks received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Paul Quinn College and his Master of Arts degree from Prairie View A&M College. He has done further study at both North Texas State and Southern Methodist Universities. He is a member of DMEA, TMEA, MENC, and State and National Choir Directors Associations. He has taught for 21 years in Texas.

As you open this volume Mr. Roy Edward Hicks, we trust that you will find its contents not only comprehensive but complete. We beseech you to accept this 1970 edition of the "VIKING" as our humble way of thanking you for being as good and dedicated as you are.

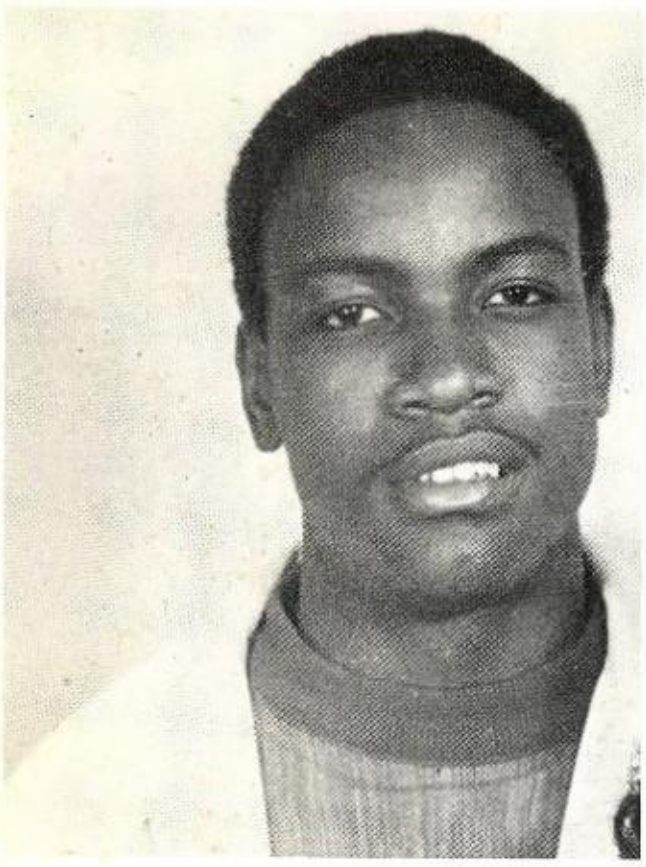
As we enter this phase of life where there is no return to high school, and our last days are almost here, we would like to acknowledge to you the thought that our hearts are with you for "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The Staff and Senior Class



Mr. Roy E. Hicks

The Editors Speak



Franklin

Throughout one's course of life there are moments, whether they are happy or sorrowful, that should be reflected upon and even relived. Such moments as high school are quite cherishable.

We, the staff of the "VIKING" yearbook, have made it our utmost desire to capture a small portion of those precious moments.

We would like to acknowledge our appreciation to Mr. Roy E. Hicks for his increased devotion to the task which has enabled us to complete and publish this third edition of the "VIKING."

We would also thank the photography staff for their cooperation and concern in seeing that our book was a success. Also, we are grateful to the faculty and our 'proud' student body.

I, as editor, would like to express my deepest appreciation to the members of my graduating class for electing me to serve as editor for this year's edition. I hope that each page will bring back old memories to some and new experiences to others.

Franklin McCloud
Editor-In-Chief

Sharon

This book has been prepared just for you by all of us. We hope that you enjoy and keep it as a memento of your high school life.

Students have been caught in their moments of glory and they can say that 'a moment of pleasure is a lifetime treasure.'

Great results cannot be achieved at once, and we must be satisfied with the advancement we make in life during the long run. We shall, one day, look back into the past and remember the prestige and fun of one's school days at L. G. P.

We should not forget what the inventive genius, Thomas Edison, said: "The three great essentials to achieve anything worthwhile are, first, hard work; second, stick-to-it-iveness; third, common sense."

We mean by education that training in virtue from youth up which makes a man passionately desire to be a perfect citizen, knowing how to rule and to obey with justice.

The Principal's Message

As you visit with us through the pages of our Third Edition of the "VIKING" Annual, the words of a most beautiful poem come to mind which best describe what we are attempting to do here at the L. G. Pinkston High School:

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,—As the swift seasons roll!"

The Administration, Faculty and Staff are deeply dedicated to the molding and training of each of our students so that they may become equipped to take their rightful places in society.

The students in our classroom today are our future leaders who will be responsible for the fate of our country. We feel that through quality education, there will be no "Generation Gap."

Education is taking place at the L. G. Pinkston High School.

Business Education

Business Education is an integral part of the total education program and should prepare its students to be effective citizens, to realize fully their individual capacities, and, most of all, to attain economic competency both as efficient workers in suitable occupations and as well-informed and skillful buyers of business goods and services in everyday living.

The English Department affirms that preparing students for institutions of higher learning is of vital importance. However, because of the great percentage of pupils who do not attend college, the division feels it is a necessity to focus a great deal of attention toward preparing students to challenge any opportunity that will confront them in future endeavors.

Message From Our President

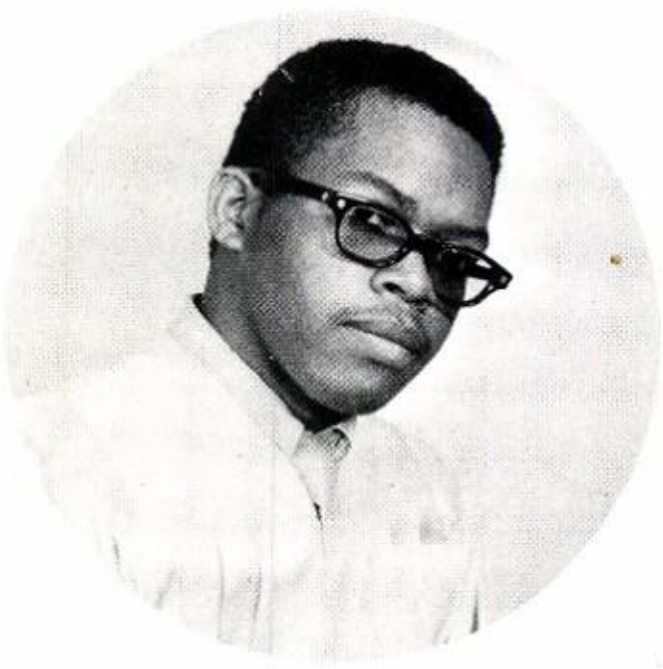
For the Senior Class, I would like to say just a few words in tribute to the staff of this our third edition of the "VIKING" Yearbook.

I realize that there have been some trying days for the annual staff, but, remember this old proverb: "Labor has a bitter root but a sweet taste."

For me it has been a great challenge as well as a privilege to be president of such a wonderful class.

To many, this annual will work as a mirror of the past. To some it will be a book of entertaining moments captured in print. But, to me, it will serve as a combination of both.

Grisby Baker, President



"Mr. President"

Class History

The L. G. Pinkston High School Senior Class of 1970 came from many places. From all over the city we came, but predominantly from Arlington Park, Fred Douglas, C. F. Carr, George Washington Carver, Sidney Lanier and Thomas Edison Elementary Schools. There is where we got our beginnings and we are very grateful for the efforts that all our elementary school teachers made to help us along the way.

The real senior class got its beginning in September, 1967. The 5 year and 4 year homerooms were introduced to the Sequoyah Junior High School freshmen which resulted in the best of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes the Pinkston High School will ever see.

The Seniors of '70 have many outstanding leaders. Among them are: Grisby Baker (Sr. Class Pres.), Frank McCloud (Student Council Pres)., Fernando Lopez (National Honor Society Pres.), Linda Watson (FTA Pres.), Sharon Hall (Ushers and Library Club Pres.), Carolyn Harrison (Public Speaking Society Pres.), Anthony Petty (Drama Club Pres.), Elbert Gills (Concert Choir Pres.), Gwendolyn McCarther (Vogue Vikings Pres.), Jacqueline Burns (PUB Pres.), Arthur Henderson (Problems of Democracy Club Pres.), Franklin McCloud (Editor-in-chief, Yearbook), and Jackie Burns and Fernando Lopez are Newspaper Editors.

We have leaders in the athletic department, also. Among these are: Ernie Mitchell, Leonard Clemons, and Calvin Sims—Basketball Captains; James Edwards—Baseball Captain; Audrey Warren—Tennis Captain; Lewis Standfield—Golf Captain, and Jesse Mauricio—Swim Team Captain.

There are many unsung heroes and heroines in the class of '70. They have all contributed greatly to the success of the school and the class. We hope that in some way, we have helped and not hindered.

We have great hopes for L. G. Pinkston, and we are, also, going to do our best to make Pinkston proud of us.

Good luck to the future senior classes, for we know we are the best of the "best" senior classes.

May our footsteps never be forgotten for we will never forget where we have trod.

Poets' Corner

Onward stretches the narrow road
  Ever binding in each our lives;
We, at last, feel we've made it
  After many hard and grueling tries.

The end has come, as come it must
  To all things, work and fun.
Our teachers have given us their trust
  And now the world we must try to run.

We don't look back, but gain courage from
  The road we've traveled thus far;
Eager to let the whole world see
  The type of class we really are.

And as we travel this narrow road
  We shall do our very best
To plant memories our teachers will hold
  And cling to and say, "They were the best."

by Maggie Armstrong

Together we stand, divided we fall
  But fall as it must be,
Let the splendor and the excitement
  Leave many a happy memory.

The years have seemed hard,
  Temptations of giving up stood in our way.
Onward we have trod—
  Ever resisting—trying to stay.

Never forget the good old days
  Where we have been gifted with the surroundings of love,
With the delightful concern of our teachers and others
  We have taken one step above.

As we depart our cherished high school
  With its "welcome" mat unfurled,
We have surpassed the lonelines of life
  And we are ready to go out into the world.

A-Viking-First:

All-American-Charles Donnell Williams

We, here at Pinkston, are extremely honored to have one of our alumni reach the heights attained by one of our graduates.

This is a feather in our coaches' caps, and they are justly proud.

Charles is an example of what can happen to a young man who lives clean, studies hard and practices diligently.

Charles, an All-American split end for Prairie View this past season, was the second round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Charles graduated Pinkston in 1965. While in high school he showed the same potential as he showed at Prairie View.

We are proud to claim him as a "Son of Pinkston" and wish for him great success.
